PLEASURE FOR VISITING PRESS

PROMOTION COMMITTEE AUTOS AND DINES AUSTRALIAN NEWS-MEN DURING SHORT STAY.

Eleven editors of the most influential newspapers in Australia and New Zealand were the guests of the Promotion Committee yesterday, several members of the local press assisting Chairman Bowen and "Publicity" Cooper. Enthusiasm over Honolulu and delight at the courtesies received were the ideas expressed by the visitors when they left and several members of the party will return by this route and stay over for a week or so in coming back from London.

The editors were as a rule accompanied by their wives and shortly after the Marana docked were placed in automobiles and started on a tour of the city. After a visit to the local banks where American money was obtained by some of the visitors, a start was made for the park. This was enjoyed to the utmost and on the return to Honolulu the majority of the party called on Governor Frear, though others made a trip through Moanahu to the polo field and for a view of Pearl Harbor, then skirting through the residence section of the city and all meeting at the Aquarium.

After this a visit was paid to the Moana Hotel, where the younger members of the party tried the surf canoes and then took dinner as the guests of the Promotion Committee.
It was a very tired but much pleased party that returned to the Marana late in the evening, and all the expressions heard were most favorable to Honolulu.

Very truly yours,

and reports were made to be taken away.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon the House sits again and some understanding will be reached with the Senate as to the time of adjournment sine die, whether it shall be nine o'clock this evening or midnight, or otherwise.

SIXTIETH DAY.
Morning Session.

Senate Bill 152 $2,000 for the needs of the Second Circuit Court, passed third reading as a starter of the business of the last day of the session of the House.

Senate Bill 153, amending Revised Laws relating to the dissolution of corporations, then passed third reading, 26 to 0.

POLICY CLOSELY FOLLOWED.
Committee on public lands, to which was referred those parts or portions of the governor's message pertaining to public works, public lands and surveys, reports:

"That the policy of economy, facility of operating public utilities and maintenance, offered by the chief executive in his message, has been very closely followed. The only deviation from the general expression of the governor's message being the consolidation of the survey department, land department and public works department under one head, which is the Superintendent of Public Works. Your committee understands that this consolidation is highly appreciated by the Governor."

MUNICIPAL BUILDING.
Committee on public lands to which was referred a communication from the Honolulu board of Supervisors, praying that the Legislature consider and report ways and means by which the present post office building be turned over to the city, if surrendered by the Federal authorities for use as a municipal building; finds that the building would make an ideal site for a municipal building, and recommends that the governor take such steps as may be necessary to carry out this object.

DEER BILL DYING.
Consideration of the Governor's veto of Senate Bill 167, on Coney's motion, was deferred until this afternoon. This is the "deer" bill, providing a shooting season and otherwise.

TWO EXECUTIONS.
Senate Bills 81 and 146, up for second reading, were today tabled and so killed. 81 sought to provide for medical inspection in the schools; 146 had to do with fees received from sale and conveyance of property under execution or other court order.

WOMEN TABLED.
Committee on Miscellaneous to which was referred the House resolution for woman suffrage presented by Kea-waa, reports as follows:
"While fully realizing the high degree of intelligence of the women of Hawaii, your committee has failed to discover any marked demand for franchise on their part. Your committee also thinks that the consideration of such a radical departure as that recommended in this resolution demands more time than the period between the introduction of this resolution and the adjournment of the Legislature and therefore recommends that it be tabled."

STOCK MARKET REMAINS FIRM

PIONEER MILL AND WAIALUA GAIN TWO POINT EACH OVER LAST SALE.

The stock market today remained very firm with little stock offering for sale. Pioneer Mill advanced two points to $172 and Waialua made the same rise to $57. Hawaiian Commercial remains very steady, two sales taking place at $31, which corresponds to $125 on the old stock valuation.
There is no indication at present of any drop in the market and with the price of sugar on the upward grade, higher prices are rather likely.

THE ART.
New program at the Art this afternoon and evening. The feature film, "An Auto Heroine," will appeal to the general public as well as auto enthusiasts. New selections will be played on the orchestral and improved graphophone. Prices 5, 10, 15 and 25 cents.

RAPID TRANSIT
WINS BOTH CASES

In the case of Nishi Oka, et al. vs.
Rapid Transit Company, damages, the jury yesterday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the defendant corporation.

This is a double headed matter, two Japanese having brought suit against the Rapid Transit Company for $5,000 each for injuries sustained in a street car collision. The facts in each case being the same, the cases were tried together.

THE SENATE

the bill which he did not approve of, as well as those of which he did, and asked the Governor which were those that did not meet his approval.

Governor Frear stated that he was not so dissatisfied with any provision as to make him oppose the measure. It was about as satisfactory a bill as perhaps could be devised to cover so many subjects. He objected to the elimination from the original bill of the provision for removal of officers by the Governor. He believed that certain questions should be submitted to the executive rather than to the judiciary—questions that in the practice of the mainland were left to the executive. But that was a matter of comparatively minor importance and on which he was prepared to yield to the views of others.
He thought it was "best to give and take," Fairchild having just given him these words.

Moore seconded McCarthy's motion.
Coelho, in prospect of the striking out of section 5, withdrew his motion for indefinite postponement.

Eight hands went up for McCarthy's amendment, Quinn following Coelho into the ranks of the Democratic party.

Smith, calling Vice President Ka-lamak to the chair, moved in amendment to a motion to adopt the report of the committee of the whole, that the resolution pass as it came from the House.

Fairchild, seconding the amendment, said if they wanted to vote for the private interests he represented they would vote to strike out section 5. Having had much experience in negotiating about land with the Government in the past four years he could assure them that section 5 curtailed the executive power and met every objection of the opponents of the present land laws. By striking out section 5 they would put the country back where it was some years ago.
You will simply say to the Governor, "Go ahead and make all the land exchanges you want."

The Vice President ruled that the question should be put on the motion to adopt the report, and thereupon the report was adopted on the following vote:

Ayes—Brown, Coelho, Harvey, Ma-kekan, McCarthy, Moore, Quinn, Robinson, Woods—9.
Noes—Baker, Chillingworth, Fairchild, Kalama, Knudsen, Smith—6.
McCarthy's concurrent resolution was afterward tabled.

APPOINTMENTS.
The Senate took up deferred appointments of the Governor.

Fairchild moved that the appointments of Land Commissioner J. W.
Pratt and Surveyor W. E. Wall be left blank on account of the amalgamation of those offices with that of Superintendent of Public Works. Carried.

McCarthy moved that the appointment of Mrs. Wilcox as a member of the Board of Commissioners of Public Instruction be confirmed. Carried.
The appointment of Judge Perry as a member of the same board was left blank on account of the news in The Star extra of his elevation to the Supreme Court bench.

Recess from 11:45 to 2 p. m.

WANTS FREEDOM FROM JAPAN

ROMANCE OF A SEATTLE GIRL IS QUICKLY SHATTERED AFTER WEDDING.

SEATTLE, (Wash.), April 14.—The dreams of an idyllic life in company with S. Shimo, a Japanese serving man of this city, with all the enticing adurments of a trip to the balmy Orient and a long summer vacation beneath cloudless skies amid sweet cherry blossoms, were shattered for Mamie Marr, a Seattle girl, in the brief space of thirty days. Mamie Marr became Mrs.
S. Shimo, an Oriental's wife, four months ago, and she is now an applicant for an absolute decree of divorce.

According to her complaint, the girl, who is barely 23 years old, refined and pretty, wedded the Oriental in this city December 15th last. Within thirty days Shimo, according to the complaint, sought to drive her into a life of slavery. She defied the kindness of the Samurai, as Shimo claimed to be, and disgusted with the shattering of her fond dreams, she sought shelter with friends who had known her in the days of her girlhood.

She asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Mamie Marr.
